

Dreamed, Created and Crafted

When:

Where:

More info:

The rise of the textile industry across New England meant a changing lifestyle for workers.

Journalist, author and musician Anne O'Connor will take a look at ideas, projects and products originating in New England. Our innovations began in the colonial times, thrived during the Industrial Revolution and remain on the cutting edge. Listen to songs from different eras and see images of the machinery and goods. What was made in YOUR community?

Visit Anne's website at anneoc.com